Dear Allen:

Enclosed herewith is our Schedule pursuant to our conversation at Princeton. It would be wonderful if our paths would cross and we would be just overjoyed to see you.

With warmest regards,

Sincerely yours,

Tom

Dear Tom:

I appreciated your itinerary which reached me just as you were leaving New York for Nice.

I envy you all the trip and I hope to be underway myself as soon as Congress disposes of my budget for the coming year. I fear, however, that I shall get off just about the time you return to New York. If, however, I should get off earlier, I shall try to see that our paths cross.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles

15 July 1956

Dear Tom:

Many thanks for your letter of July 6, 1956. We are looking into this anti-American and, as you say, probably Communist propaganda which is coming out [redacted] Other friends have also sent me copies of similar material from the same source. The letters addressed to former [redacted] have come to this country in recent years are somewhat different in content but with the same general subversive message. I am asking [redacted] to look into the matter and have also alerted the FBI.

I think the suggestion of [redacted] whom I had previously mentioned to [redacted] is a good one. I saw John last night and he seemed satisfied and relaxed about the situation. He rather hinted that the tribal chieftains were going back to their own country. I wonder whether they will decide to do this prior to some arrangement with the boss of the particular area.

I am rather hoping to get abroad for a somewhat prolonged trip about August tenth. I have not been to the Far East for almost four years and I think it is high time I visited that area. I expect to start off with a few weeks in Europe both to do some needed work there and also to avoid the extreme heat of South Asia and the Far East during August. However, after having weathered many summers in Washington, there is nothing in the way of heat which particularly bothers me.

Sincerely,

The Honorable Thomas E. Dewey
